EXPECTATION STATEMENT

The JCSP Rodeo Queen must understand that by winning this title she is becoming the face of the Johnson County Sheriff's Posse and an official representative of the PRCA. She will be responsible for upholding the utmost respectful image of a moral young lady. She will represent her country, the sport of rodeo and the JCSP, and in doing so promotes our western heritage. She will symbolize youth and will spread good will for her community while laying a solid foundation for her future.

At no time should there be any visible tattoos displayed in person or on social media. If you do have tattoos, they shall remain covered at all times.

At no time will illegal behavior be tolerated. Should such claim of illegal acts be found your title shall be relinquished IMMEDIATELY.

Your personal Facebook page will be allowed, but will be closely monitored by the JCSP Rodeo Queen Committee. It is mandatory that access be allowed to this account by "Friending" the Committee directors.

There will be no "relationship status" posted at any time on social media. Your moral character should be portrayed as wholesome and polite at all times while online. Under no circumstances shall online bullying, name calling or inappropriate rants be acceptable. If at any time you are requested to remove or modify any post on social media it shall be done immediately without question.

During your reign as the JCSP PRCA Rodeo Queen there shall be NO visible sign of engagement or promise ring, or any other paraphernalia to indicate anything other than single status. This includes living with a male that you are not a family relative of.
